Petition under Article 226 of the constitution of India praying that in the circumstances stated in the Affidavit filed herein the High Court will be pleased to issue a writ or direction more particularly a WRIT OF MANDAMUS declaring the action of the respondent No. 1 in frequently summoning the petitioners to the police station without registering any crime as being arbitrary, illegal and violative of Article 19(1)(d) and 21 of the constitution of India, and further direct the respondent No. 1 not to summon the petitioners to the police station without registering any crime and pass such other order or orders as this Hon'ble court may deems fit and proper in the circumstances of the case

Counsel for the Petitioner: MR.VIJAY B.PAROPAKARI

Counsel for the Respondent No.1: GP FOR HOME

The Court at the stage of admission made the following :

ORDER:

Heard both sides and at their request this case is taken up for disposal at the stage of admission.

This Writ Petition is filed seeking to declare the action of the first respondent in frequently summoning the petitioners to the police station, without registering any crime, as arbitrary and illegal.

The grievance of the petitioners is that the respondents are calling the petitioners to the police station without registering any crime against the petitioners. It is needless to say that if there is any complaint against the petitioners, a crime can be registered and the matter can be investigated further. Till such time, no coercive steps are permissible under law.

With the above observation, the Writ Petition is disposed of. No costs.
